Wonderly Stole Race in Last Jumps-Madden Has a Good One in Irish Lad.

In Irish Lad, the son of Bathampton and Arrow Grass, John E. Madden appears to have a colt out of the ordinary. He won the fifth race in very easy fashion yesterday, beating some very good two-year-olds. Mr. Madden said after the race that he had been offered $15,000 for the tolt by Matt Byrnes, but that he had refused to sell. The colt has valuable engagements, including the Futurity, on which Mr. Madden has, no doubt, cast covetous eyes.

Irish Lad is one of the honest sort that will always do their best. But he qualified made the spectators more rightfully claim that he is the best two-year-old shown. The youngsters will probably come together before the meeting is ended and then the question of superiority will be settled for the time being at least.

Close observers of the fourth race, which was the Laureate Stakes for two-year-olds, say that Winnie O'Connor fooled away the race with Mary Street. Mr. Featherstone is said to have backed Mary street to win a pot of money, and if this is true he cannot entertain
